Ordering Offices are responsible for incorporating the most current version of the applicable DFARS clauses in the Delivery Order as appropriate.]

 - viii. Review the terms and conditions recommended for ordering software, services or hardware provided in the BPA Attachments and secure the additional terms and conditions that represent the best value for the government.

5. Ordering Process

- a. DFARS Regulation 208.74
 - i. The BPA is an Enterprise Software Agreement (ESA) as defined in DFARS 208.74, which directs DoD software buyers and requiring officials to check the DoD ESI website (www.esi.mil) for DoD inventory or the availability of an enterprise software agreement before using another method of acquisition. These steps are summarized as follows from the DFARS:

1. Check the Enterprise Agreement Summary Table at www.esi.mil to determine if commercial IT products or services have already been purchased and are available from DoD inventory or through an enterprise software agreement. If they are available, purchase the designated software from DoD inventory and reimburse the SPM.
2. If the required commercial products or services are not available from inventory or from an enterprise software agreement, the DoD component may use an alternate method of acquisition, subject to applicable laws and policy.
3. If the required commercial products or services are not available from inventory but are available from an enterprise software agreement, buyers must follow the procedure in the DFARS Section 208.74.
4. If a DoD component must obtain the commercial products or services outside the DoD ESI BPA, the component may seek a waiver from a management official designated by the DoD Component.
